Severe Pains in Side

"I HAD had quite a bad spell and sickness," writes Mrs. Emma Patrick, of Caney, Ky., "and it was an effort for me to go about my home. I had a very severe pain in my left side that almost took my breath at times. I lost my appetite. I grew thin, pale and lifeless. I fell off till I only weighed about 115 pounds.

"Cardui was recommended to me and by the time I had taken one bottle I saw it was what I needed. I ate more and rested better. I kept taking it and my skin and flesh took on a more healthy color. I felt stronger and, as the nervousness left me, the pain in my side was less severe. After taking nine bottles, I eat anything, go anywhere and feel fine. I weigh 160 pounds and am well. I feel that I owe it all to having used Cardui."

Pain, in certain parts of the body, is a sure indication of female complications. The treatment needed is not the use of

Happenings In Various Sections Of Old Virginia

NEWS ITEMS FOR OUR READERS

Lynchburg.—Revenues of the Lynchburg Postoffice during 1924 aggregated $385,484.01, an 8 per cent. gain over 1923. November was the only month a gain over the same month during 1923.

* * *

Hopewell.—Louis Miles, 32, colored, this city, is dead, and Jimmie Yarbrough, 37, of Petersburg, is held in the city jail here on a murder charge, as the result of an altercation in a local hotel.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Miss Josephine Yeatman, registrar of Randolph-Macon Woman's College, is suffering from a fracture of her left arm, which she sustained near the college when she fell on ice-covered pavements.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Senator Carter Glass not only observed a birthday Sunday but for the sixth time became a grandfather. His daughter, Mrs. John Q. Boatwright, of Danville, gave birth in a Lynchburg hospital to a fine baby girl and immediately named her Nancy Carter.

* * *

Covington.—William H. Helmintoler, Company "C," Eighteenth Infantry, whose father, James H. Helmintoler, resides here, has just completed with honor a four months' course in the United States Army Transportation School, at Fort Hamilton, N. Y.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Tobacco sales were resumed here the offerings not the open market aggregating 3,609 pounds, which sold at an average of $21.46 a 100 pounds. The sales were not up to the expectations of the trade. It is estimated that sales to date, 4,020,300 pounds, represents 45 to 50 per cent. of the 1925 crop.

* * *

Covington.—Young Taylor Brown, who was struck by an automobile driven by Miss Ida Anderson, of Rosedale, is in a critical condition at the Clifton Forge Hospital suffering from a skull fracture. The lad's bicycle and the car collided at a street intersection. At the hospital physicians reported the fracture a serious one.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Ralph Barlow, young son of W. H. Barlow, an Appomattox county farmer, is a patient at the Virginia Baptist Hospital here, suffering from a dislocation of a joint of the vertebrae, resulting from a fall several days ago from a load of hay. The boy was able to walk a quarter of a mile home and go to bed, but was unable to draw the bed covering over him.

* * *

Danville.—The police authorities are investigating the discovery of the body of a white female infant found in an alley on Stokes street by a little boy. The body was wrapped in paper and was discovered near a garage. The coroner will perform an autopsy to determine if the infant ever lived. No arrests have been made and authorities say none are in immediate prospect.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Henry White, negro section man, after finishing his lunch at the south end of the Southern tunnel under Rivermont avenue, stepped on the track to light his pipe as a southbound train came out of the tunnel, through dense smoke made a moment before passage of a northbound train. Other members of the gang saw the negro knocked from the track and killed almost instantly.

* * *

Lynchburg.—New officers elected by Red Cross Council, J. O. U. A. M., are: Councillor, Clayton Patterson; vice-councillor, H. H. Rush; secretary, McD. Landrum; assistant, L. C. Landrum; treasurer, James L. Gills; conductor, M. S. Turner; inside sentinel, J. T. Marsh; outside sentinel, A. D. Pearson; warden, J. T. Turner; trustees for twelve months, W. M. Collins.

* * *

Danville.—Danville's war trophies recently awarded this city by Adjutant-General W. W. Sale, of Richmond, arrived Wednesday. The shipment included two German maxim guns and a trench mortar, weighing 1,750 pounds. The shipment will remain in the warehouse of the railway company until a decision has been reached as to their permanent placement.

* * *

Richmond.—This city's population is growing at the rate of 6,000 annually, including only those residents within the corporate limits of the city, slightly more than half of whom are adults, the population today is estimated at 191,600, according to figures compiled by the Richmond Chamber of Commerce. The 200,000 mark, which is already exceeded by the population of greater Richmond, will be passed before 1926. The official government estimate last July showed a population of 188,600.

* * *

Norfolk.—Lieutenant Commander, Paul Cassard and Lieutenant C. J. McGrady, U. S. N., were seriously injured at the Hampton Roads naval base in an airplane crash. Both suffered a broken leg and bruises about the head and body. The plane in which they were flying, a small land craft, had just taken off from the field and was about fifty feet in the air when it side-slipped from some undetermined cause and crashed to earth.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Judge Frank P. Christian, in the Corporation Court, in the suit of Peters against the city of Lynchburg, of an athletic stadium at Thirteenth and Commerce streets. The city had closed sections of Court and Thirteenth streets to secure a regulation baseball field, and the ordinance closing the streets was enjoined. The court held the city had no right to close a street for this purpose and did not go into the question of nuisance raised in the bill in chancery. No action looking to an appeal has been taken by the city as yet.

* * *

Pressing.—Under the direction of James S. Mullins, State prohibition inspector, a large copper still was captured near Skeetrock, in the lower Cumberlands, and left with Miles Sykes, a justice of the peace, of that section, for safe keeping. Shortly afterward a disorderly crowd gathered at Sykes' residence and from the yard demanded the surrender of the still which he firmly refused. Then the gang began firing into his house. The officer sent his son to a neighbor's house to borrow a gun, meantime standing the gang off with his revolver. When the boy returned with the gun the officer dispersed the crowd.

* * *

Bristol.—Hundreds of thousands of fish have died in the North Fork of the Holston River, the Holston and other streams in that part of the State as a result of the muck dam collapse at Saltville, Va., Christmas Eve, in which twenty-two million tons of their lives refuse that broke away from its moorings, swept clean the little settlement of homes 200 feet below, went into the North Fork of the Holston. The lime flowed downstream until it was emptied into the main branch of the Holston. Dead fish by the hundreds also have been reported by the Tennessee River at Knoxville, Tenn., more than 200 miles from the scene of the disaster.

* * *

Williamsburg.—Study tours at the University of Toulouse in France and the National University in Mexico will be conducted during the summer of 1925 by William and Mary College. Academic work will count toward diplomas at the University of Toulouse and teaching certificates of the Alliance Francaise. In the arrangements with the University of Mexico, courses offered by William and Mary will be open to students having sufficient knowledge of English and to American students who can understand Spanish. The summer school at Toulouse will be conducted by Dr. G. G. Pichaner, and the school in Mexico will be under Professor C. E. Castaneda.

* * *

Winchester.—Interest is reported to be at "white heat" in Highland county over contracts for hauling mail on the county's four star routes. Even a presidential election, it is declared, fails to arouse the interest of Highlanders as does the quadrennial letting of mail contracts. The county, which has no railroads, has had good mail service in the last four years, and citizens generally say the improvement has been so noticeable that they hope the government will give due consideration to quality rather than accept the bids during the year which did not show of some unreliable persons.

* * *

Pulaski.—The town of Draper held its first municipal election Saturday, having been incorporated by an order entered by Judge A. A. Campbell at the November term of the Circuit Court of Pulaski county, in which order January 3 was fixed as the date for an election to elect a Mayor and four Councilmen. The ticket named at a mass-meeting was elected with out opposition: B. P. Ross, Mayor; C. O. Harper, H. E. Gannaway, J. W. Gardner and E. M. Bowman, councilmen. Only thirty-three votes were cast out of about eighty qualified voters. All the officials-elect, with the exception of Mr. Gardner, who is cashier of the Bank of Draper, are merchants. Their term will begin immediately upon their qualifying. The chief purpose in having the town incorporated is to have a bond election looking to getting water and other improvements.

* * *

Lynchburg.—Owing to a number of cases of rabies among dogs here, the department of public welfare of the city is making an investigation upon which to base a request to go to the City Council, looking to enactment of an ordinance to require all dogs kept in the city to be given vaccination against rabies before owners can secure a license for them. While no people have been bitten by rabid dogs recently it is known that there have been two unusual number of cases here within the past few weeks.

THE LAST SUPPER

LESSON TEXT—Luke 22:7-16, 24-30.

GOLDEN TEXT—This is My body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of Me.—Luke 22:19.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The Lord's Supper.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Meaning of the Communion Service.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Communion With Jesus Christ.

1. The Passover Prepared (vv. 7-13.) The Disciples' Inquiry (vv. 7-9). They inquired of Jesus as to where they should prepare for the Passover. They no doubt were anxious to be of service to Him.

2. The Master's Strange Directions (vv. 10-12). They were to go into the city where they would meet a man bearing a pitcher of water. He assured them that they would then be shown a large upper room furnished.

3. The Obedience of the Disciples (v. 13). They did not stop to question the sanity of the command but like true disciples obeyed. Jesus, because He is omniscient, knew just how the matter would turn out.

II. The Passover Eaten (vv. 14-18).

1. He—Whom (v. 14)? Those who sat down to this last Passover feast were the Master and the Twelve Apostles.

2. His Words Unto Them (vv. 15-18).

(1) "I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer." How anxious He was to show them the meaning of the passion through which He was to go; also He craved their human sympathy as He passed through this trying ordeal.

(2) "I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God." His death was the antitypical fulfillment of the passover meal. He looked forward to that time when the process of redemption would have been completed and a perfect union between the disciples and the Lord would be consummated.

(3) "Take this cup and divide it among yourselves." The disciples were now partaking of that symbol of His blood. He assured them that He would not again drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God should come. Drinking anew in the kingdom does not mean that in heaven His service will be renewed, but that this was symbolic of the heavenly reality.

III. The Feast of the New Covenant Instituted (vv. 19-20).

This took place at the close of the paschal supper.

1. The Bread, a Symbol of Christ's Body (v. 19). Christ giving of Himself to them. In order to get benefit from physical bread it is necessary to receive it. In order to get benefit from Christ one must receive Him.

2. The Cup, a Symbol of Christ's Blood (v. 20). This was symbolic of the atonement which was made by the shedding of His blood on the cross. He said: "This cup is the new testament in My blood which was shed for you," indicating that each one must personally accept the atonement made by the shedding of His blood.

IV. The Wicked Behaviour at the Feast (vv. 21-27).

1. The Treachery of Judas (vv. 21-23).

(1) "The time of its manifestation (v. 21). It was while they were eating the last passover that Jesus made the announcement of the betrayal. Verily is the reason why this feast was dismal—by such an announcement was that Judas might be given an opportunity at this last moment to repent.

(2) The betrayal was by the determinate counsel of God (v. 22; Acts 2:23). Nothing takes place by chance. Even the evil, sinful acts of men come within the permissive providence of God, but this does not lessen the guilt. Jesus says: "Woe unto the man by whom He is betrayed."

(3) Sorrowful question (v. 23). The disciples did not seem to suspect one another, but made the question a personal one.

2. Selfish Ambition of the Disciples (vv. 24-27). In this tragic hour the disciples were so concerned with the thought of honorable position that they were striving among themselves as to who should be greatest.

3. The 'Apostles' Place in the Kingdom (vv. 28-30).

He assures them that those who continue with Him in His trials shall be appointed unto a place in the kingdom which will entitle them to eat and drink at His table and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

We wonder how Hon. Calvin Coolidge would enjoy furnishing and feeding his team and carrying the mail from 22 to 28 miles this kind of weather, for the pitiful sum of $4 per day?

Despite the mud Dr. Christian is kept busy; disease and death are no respecters of persons, and do not wait for good weather, good roads or the doctor's convenience.

Charles Lewis is preparing to set his saw mill down on Mr. Leighton Hatcher's farm.

Mrs. R. F. Spradlin of Lynchburg, is visiting her many friends in this vicinity.

Miss Anna Ferguson, teacher of Airy Hill school, spent the week end with her aunt, Mrs. W. T. Childers.

Mrs. Tyler Coleman is reported quite ill. She has been a great sufferer and has the sympathy of a host of friends.

Mrs. Kyle, we regret to note, is also sick.

Miss Otys Childers, who is employed as stenographer, in Lynchburg, is quite sick with acute tonsilitis. We hope soon to hear of her recovery.

Several persons in this neighborhood have lost valuable cows recently. Dr. Christian lost one from a broken neck.

Henry Daniel Johnson colored, has lost two this fall which is quite a loss.

James Henry Irving, a worthy colored man died Tuesday after a short illness and was buried Thursday. He was highly respected by all who knew him, both white and colored.

"These six things doth the Lord hate; yea, seven are an abomination unto him: a proud look, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood, a heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief, a false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren" Proverbs 6:16 17, 18, 19.

PAMPLIN

N. T. Dillon died at his home near Pamplin Wednesday, after an illness of a few days of pneumonia. He was buried at Spring Creek Thursday, where a large crowd of friends and relatives were present. He leaves to mourn their loss a devoted wife five daughters and three sons Mr. Dillon became a christian early in life and remained faithful to the end. We shall greatly miss him.

News has just been received of the death of L. R. Driskill who has been in declining health for a number of years. Mr. Driscoll leaves a true, devoted wife, three daughters and one son. Tho he has been confined to his bed for some months he will be greatly missed, but his suffering has ceased and his christian life will be an inspiration to us all.

The ladies of the Woman's Missionary Society held a week of prayer for foreign missions.

There are many of our old men sick at present. They are Messrs. W. D. Ligon, J. H. Brightw..l, J. H. Connally and Dick Jennings. We wish them a speedy recovery.

Tobacco sales have been fine since the market opened after Xmas. We have many satisfied customers.

We had a small fire in town this morning. Cooper Woodson's house was burned. No means of fighting fire in our town. How much longer will our town stand for no fire apparatus.

HIXBURG

We hear so much talk of famine and Near East Relief and what should be done for someone so far from us and all this I grant is alright but the command of the good Book reads Jerusalem first then Samaria and so on; we have lots of places more attention should be paid, in fact we are prone to over look things right at us. We have a Confederate soldier that should be sharing in the pension appropriation while for some technical clause he is being deprived, and most likely some one that never heard a gun fired or saw service is on the pay roll. But any man with two eyes and good gumption could tell at once after seeing this man of over 70 years on horse back carrying himself in such a way that is commanding. And he was trained under the march of our great Southern General, and the remnants of such are few. A bouquet looks lots better on the man than it does on the grave.
